ORAL JUDGEMENT

The learned counsel for the petitioner who is the original complainant states that he has been informed by the learned counsel for the respondents that the unit was closed for about six years and this is not disputed. Hence, the application for injunction filed by the complainant in the trial court does not survive. In the circumstances, therefore, it is not necessary to interfere with the order passed by the learned Sessions Judge and the Application is disposed of accordingly. Rule discharged. Interim relief stands vacated.
